

Review report regard consistency of BPCs program activities with ministry of education final license

Referring to ministry of education final license for BPCs programs, the quality and development center has reviewed the consistency of current running programs with the final license documents, and found that all current 11 programs are consistent with final license regarding programs title and study plans.

Director of Quality and development center manager

DR El-Safey Mohamed El-Safey Mabrouk